

I am very disturbed that Sinclair Broadcasting will be airing a blatantly incorrect program about John Kerrey the night before the elections without any balancing program such as the documentary "Up the River." The proposed program is essentially an extended "Swift ad" campaign commercial. This is a clear violation of FCC rules, at least as they were in the past. Please require them to either give equal time to a positive John Kerry program or prevent them from airing this "infomercial."